REPORT OF SCHOOL BOARD.

In accordance with the usual custom, and in compliance with a law of the state, we present herewith our annual report.

It has been our aim the past year, as heretofore, to engage teachers thoroughly qualified for their work. In this we think we have been reasonably successful. It requires, however, the active co-operation of the parents and scholars with the teachers to produce the best results. We will now briefly give you our ideas in regard to the several schools :

THE VILLAGE PRIMARY.

For this school Miss Abbie H. Allen, of New York City, was engaged. The school numbered fifty-five pupils, and among them were quite a number who could not speak the English language. Soon after its commencement it became apparent that the number was too large for one teacher to successfully manage, and Miss Mabel A. Heath was engaged as an assistant. This arrangement was continued through the next term; the progress was good generally, and especially with those who, at the beginning, knew not a word of our language. The second term seemed to run with a good deal less friction between the teacher and scholars than the first. On the whole this school we think was satisfactory to all concerned.

THE GRAMMAR SCHOOL.

The first term of this school was under the instruction of Miss H. L. Leonard, of Needham, Mass. Miss Leonard had previously taught several terms here, and always with success; this term was no exception. At the closing examination the exercises were wholly conducted by the scholars, the teacher taking the place of a spectator. For promptness, thoroughness and self-reliance we never saw it equalled. If the parents and scholars in other parts of the town could have witnessed this it might have been to them a good object lesson. The next term of this school was taught by Miss Mary L. Moulton, of Newburyport, Mass. Like her predecessor, she was not a stranger here. Under her management the reputation of the school has been sustained. It will be fortunate for us if this teacher continues her services here another year.

EAST HARRISVILLE SCHOOL.

The school here was taught the first term by Miss Grace Sanborn, of Kingston. This teacher was well qualified, as far as education goes, for her position. She was conscientious and labored hard to make her school a profitable one to those under her charge. She was unfortunate in one respect, which detracted somewhat from her usefulness. On the whole, we thought the term an average one. For the next term Miss Inez McCallam, of Newton, Mass., was engaged. She came well recommended, and at the commencement we saw nothing to prevent a good school. At the close of the fifth week Miss McCallam resigned her position. If a little more effort had been made on the part of both parents and scholars to sustain and help this teacher we do not believe that the school would have been so complete a failure. After a short vacation, Miss Lillie S. Adams, of Jaffrey, was employed to finish the term. Miss Adams is a teacher of large experience and of excellent reputation, which she fully sustained here. The examination showed that some excellent work had been done by both teacher and scholars. In this school are some promising scholars; but an overestimate of their own abilities, either by themselves or by their parents, will not make a Grant or Cleveland.

CHESHAM SCHOOL.

The first and second terms here were taught by Miss Emily M. Putnam, of Fitzwilliam, a young lady of fine education, and who had previously some experience in teaching. She was industrious and painstaking in her work. Perhaps her methods of government were not always the most judicious, but those who attended for the sole purpose of learning had a good opportunity to do so. Some availed themselves of this and some did not. Here are those scholars who are always at their posts, who always have good teachers and rank high in scholarship.

and in deportment, who are an honor to the school and to those who send them; and here also, we regret to say, that you find those exactly the reverse. The winter term was taught by Miss Allen, who taught the village Primary the previous terms. Miss Allen indulged in no superfluity of language. She meant what she said and said what she meant. Her pupils quickly understood this and acted accordingly. The progress of the school was good, if it is possible to make progress under such adverse circumstances. Here was a term of school with about 20 scholars, which kept 40 days, and had upon its register at the close over 300 marks of tardiness! We have no doubt but this beats the record. The attendance was also irregular; one-third of the children within the school precinct either did not attend at all or only for a few days. This was not the fault of the teacher, but of the parents, who ought to be at least ashamed of themselves to so lightly regard their school privileges. The state of New Hampshire has made the most ample provision for the instruction of its children. To obtain an education amply sufficient for all the practical business of life is now as free to the youth of this state as the air they breathe. Our free school system, of which we ought to feel so proud, has no worse enemies than those who are responsible for the condition of the Chesham school.

ROLL OF HONOR.

For the year: Mattie Gilcrest. For two terms: Zoella Phelps, Harlan M. Brown. For one term: Charles Gilcrest, Josie Birch, Sadie Dickey, Charles Fisk, Lizzie Donahue, Bertie Johnson, Mabel Eustace, Elsie Ware, Aggie Kennedy, Jennie McWilliams, Jimmie Winn, Hattie Tuttle, Aggie Winn, Rose Lapoint, Jimmie Donahue, Alice L. Phelps, Alice E. Seaver, Harvey G. Ware, Harry Tarbox, Charles Wilds.

We have no return of perfect attendance of the primary school.

SAMUEL D. BEMIS,
Treasurer.

Harrisville, Feb. 27, 1893.

This certifies that I have examined the accounts of the treasurer of the school board and find the same correctly cast and properly vouched, and a balance in his hands of $21.89.

FRANCIS STRATTON,
Auditor.
